Arbor - New MIS system

You should all have received your login and password by now and downloaded the app. If you are having trouble accessing this, please speak to the school office.

Used/old uniform - sharing, caring and reusing together

If you have any old uniform items gathering dust, why not donate them! Help us support sustainability and the community by giving your used items a second life. Drop them off at the school office whenever is convenient for you. Every piece counts! Thank you.

Free school meals for all children 2024-2025

The Mayor of London has confirmed that free school meals will continue for all pupils for the next academic year starting in September.

Secondary school visits

Your Year 6 child will have received a letter inviting them to attend for a day this term, most schools have their visit days on either 4 or 5 July. The absence will be authorised for the full day and pupils should not come back to our school on that day if they finish early.

For Parents - Year 6 Transition to Secondary

If your child is going to start secondary school in please visit the website below for useful E-safety online information.
